JEENALD REMAINS ON THE BENCH

SONG IS SUNG BY VARIOUS STUDENTS "POPCORN STYLE":

We have a reputation. It's ours to uphold.

So we're cooking up an ass-kicking and serving it cold

I'm earning my place, I'm making my name

So when they raise the temperature I'll push through pain

I gotta do it anyway I gotta be tough

I gotta show the spectators that I'm good enough

If you want participation or just to have fun

Then it's time to stick a fork in your ass, cause you're done!

If you're not here to play, just get out of the way

We won't accept defeat

Get back in the game, live up to the name

Or get out of the kitchen if you can't take the heat

Ohhhh Why the hell are you still in your seat?

Ohhhh Get out of the kitchen if you can't take the heat

Kill the competition. This is our park.
We'll chew you up and spit you out - that's just who we are I'm climbing the ladder, I will be the best
And there's nothing I wouldn't do to rise above the rest

This competition's over now that I have arrived
Giving up or getting benched just means you lack drive
It really makes me sad to see my friends cry in pain
But how could I cry with them when their loss is my gain?

You're not here to play, just get out of my way
I won't accept defeat
You cost us the game, so I'll live up to the name
Now get out of the kitchen since you can't take the heat

Ohhhh Why the hell are you still in my seat?
Ohhhh Get out of the kitchen since you can't take the heat

When we take to the court we are a team
We share the colors we share a dream
We are the champions till we get home
So we're always in a match of our own
It's not about self-betterment, it's not a way of life
Being the best, always on top, is just how we survive so...

I'm here to play, get the fuck out my way

I can't afford defeat

This is my game, because I put you to shame

Now get out of the kitchen cause you can't take the-you can't take the-

Ohhh God, it hurts so good to succeed!

Ohhh Get out of the kitchen if you can't take the
